

CS-251: Software Engineering (I)
Course Project: Event Organizer
DR. Mohamed El-Ramly
T.A. Sara Tarek

Non functional Requirements Document for Event Organizer

Author: Mostafa Aly El-Sayyad
31/10/2014

Non functional requirements:

1. Usability:

This software should be easy to use and not require any technical/programming skills.

2. Reliability:

This application is should be reliable in its implementation and doesn't contain any errors

3. Performance:

Short response time: The loading time of the software must be below 5 seconds

4. Efficiency:

This software should be efficient to helps the user share his event using the "view recommended event" feature

5. Security:

This software should be highly secured and protect the users' data and personal information

6. Maintainability:

This software should have regular maintenance

7. Legal:

This software should be free and available to all users and companies.

8. Interface:

User friendly: This software should provide a simple user interface that allows him to interact easily with the software features.